Dear Judiciary Committee:

Governor Lamont has declared that Connecticut is one of the safest states when it comes to "gun violence" and has some of the toughest laws, "but that isn't good enough." Yes it is. It's not private ownership of guns that is the problem, it's the ones in the hands of criminals. Attention needs to be focused on their use of

The Second Amendment of the US Constitution reads, "A well regulated militia, being necessary to the security of a free state, the right of the people to keep and bear arms, shall not be infringed." That last phrase is the law of our land and you need to uphold that.
